

Shah-i-Hamadan Institute of Islamic Studies

Vision of the Department

The Institute aims to be the centre of excellence at the national and international level and encourage the scholarly and critical study of Islam, the Muslim world and comparative study of other world Religions

Mission of the Department

To impart quality education to the stakeholders.

To enable them to play positive, productive and constructive role in the society.

To emerge as responsible citizens with a sense of strong morality, having respect for higher ethical standards of life and humanity.

The Department aims to promote:

Objectives/ Goal:

Institutional Integrity

Ambience for learning, education and research

Trust and Transparency

Core Values
Of The Department

Collaboration and Empathy

Teamwork

Progressive academic growth